WHO WE ARE

Founded by actor Paul Newman and General Norman Schwarzkopf Camp Boggy Creek is a FREE year-round, medically-safe camp for children with serious medical conditions. When children come to Camp Boggy Creek, they will embark on a life-changing experience that builds resilience and long-lasting friendships, while having the time of their life.

If you're looking to get involved at Camp Boggy Creek, we'd love to meet you! Camp Boggy Creek offers several volunteer opportunities including the following:

- Cabin Pals For Family Weekends
- Activity Pals For Summer Sessions and Family Retreat Weekends
- Grounds or Housekeeping
- Clerical Help
- Helping at our Signature Event Fundraisers
- Camp Photographer/Videographer

WHERE WE ARE LOCATED

A short drive from Orlando, in Eustis, Florida, Camp Boggy Creek's 232 acres of natural beauty is the perfect, medically safe place for children to experience the joy of Camp. Our beautiful campus includes air-conditioned cabins, a fully functional theater, an enormous, heated swimming pool, a full-sized indoor basketball court, an archery range, stables, and so much more.

Our Mission
